

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One copy, one year..... $ 1.50
One copy, six months..... 1.00
One copy, three months..... 50
No deduction from these rates under any circumstances.

As we are compelled by law to pay postage in advance on papers sent outside of Ohio county, we are forced to require payment on subscriptions in advance.

All letters on business must be addressed to JOHN P. BARRETT, Publisher.

LODGE MEETINGS.

A. Y. M.HARTFORD LODGE, NO. 156.

Meets third Monday night in each month. JOHN P. TRACY, W. M. SAM E. HILL, Secy.

R. A. M.KEYSTONE CHAPTER, NO. 110.

Meets second Monday night in each month. K. E. W. H. MOORE, H. P. Comp. H. WEINSHHEIM MER. Sec.

I. O. O. F.HARTFORD LODGE NO. 158.

Meets in Taylor Hall, in Hartford, Ky., on the Second and Fourth Saturday evenings in each month. The fraternity are cordially invited to visit us when convenient for them to do so.

L. BARRETT, N. G. W. M. PURVIS, Secy.
B. F. BRYANT, D. D. G. M.

I. O. G. T.HARTFORD LODGE NO. 12.

Meets in Taylor Hall, Hartford, Ky., every Thursday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to members of the Order to visit us, and all such will be made welcome.

J. BARRETT, W. C. T.
CLAUDE J. VASER, W. Secy.
G. B. WILLIAMS, L. D.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

HENRY D. MORSEY, S. M. E. HILL.

McHENRY & HILL.

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW

HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, notary.

F. P. MORGAN.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

HARTFORD, KY.

(Office west of courthouse over Hardwick & Hall's store.)

Will practice in inferior and superior courts of this commonwealth.

Special attention given to cases in bankruptcy.

F. P. Morgan is also examiner, and will take depositions accordingly—will be ready to oblige all parties at all times.

J. E. FOGLE, W. N. SWEENEY,
Hartford, Ky. Owenton, Ky.

FOGLE & SWEENEY,ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS*AT LAW,*HARTFORD, . . . KENTUCKY.

Will practice their profession in the Ohio county Circuit Court, and in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

J. E. Fogle will also practice in the Circuit courts of adjoining counties, and in the interior courts of Ohio county.

OFFICE—West side of Market street near courthouse

W. M. F. GREGORY.

(County Judge.)

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

HARTFORD, KY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. Office in the courthouse.

JOHN P. BARRETT,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

and Real Estate Agent,

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. With hay, oil, leases, or rents lands or mineral privileges on reasonable terms. Will write deeds, mortgages, leases, &c., and attend to listing and paying taxes on lands belonging to non-residents.

GEO. C. WEDDING,

Attorney and Counselor at Law,

AND U. S. COMMISSIONER

HARTFORD, KY.

Will attend to all business confined to his care in the inferior and superior courts of the Commonwealth.

Office opposite Court House near the Post Office.

JAS. A. THOMAS, GRO. A. PLATT.

JAS. A. THOMAS & CO.

HARTFORD, KY.

Dealers in staple and fancy

DRY GOODS,

Notions, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps. A large assortment of these goods kept constantly on hand, and will be sold at the very lowest cash price.

v2-1-6-m

VIRGIL P. ADDINGTON

DEALER IN

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES,

Boots and Shoes, Clothing, Cassimeres and Trimmings a specialty. Bed apparel of jeans, tweeds, &c. I will sell for cash wool, feathers, eggs or butter. Will also cut and make clothing in the latest style and on the most reasonable terms. Remember the place—Market street, next door to Hartford House.

v2-1-6-m

DR. S. J. WEDDING,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

Tenders his Professional Services to the citizens of Fordville and vicinity.

v2-1-6-m

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

"I COME, THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK."

VOL. 3.HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., JANUARY 10, 1877.*NO. 1.

2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76</

THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1877.

Florida.

The Democratic candidates have been installed into office and the Republican have not been, it having been demonstrated before the court so clearly, that Governor Drew and the whole Democratic ticket was elected, that the radicals did not go through with the race as they did in South Carolina and Louisiana, in both of which states they now have two sets of men claiming to be the State officers. Florida is now counted as one of the States redeemed from carpet-bag rule and her people are to be congratulated.

Who Combs the Voter?

We will leave it to good Republican authority to say, On the 25th day of February, 1877, Senator Roscoe Conkling, one of the Republican contestants for the nomination for President, said in the United States Senate: "The two Houses, in fact, make the count." * * * "When you come to the last act, the act accomplished of making the count, in all cases which the constitution imports; that is the act of the two Houses." Dawes, Morton, Bowditch, Logan, Christianity, and Frelinghuysen, all Republicans, took about the same position. Several of these gentlemen are now arguing that the Vice-President has the sole power to count the vote. What a tremendous summersault in legal opinion, and that, too, in less time than one year!—The necessity of the case, in order to keep the "ins" in and the "outs" out, has brought about the wonderful change in these man's minds.

Who is Elected President?

Why, Tilden of course. If you take the face of the papers as they stand, Tilden has one majority. If you conclude that Congress can go behind the returns and inquire into the State elections, Tilden is still elected, for he carried a majority of over eight thousand in Louisiana, and also carried Florida, which gives him twelve more electoral votes. So take either end of the rope and the same result is obtained. Noting that a bold, courageous move on the part of the conspirators, who are considerably in the minority, to inaugurate Hayes by brute force, and a cowardly acquiescence on the part of a tremendous majority, backed up by law, justice, constitution, precedent, and the honest vote of over four million freemen, can change the result. Every intimation on the part of Mr. Tilden's supporters to submit to this outrage only emboldens the conspirators that much more. A firm, determined stand will succeed, and Mr. Tilden will be inaugurated. Let every true patriot speak out in tones of thunder in opposition to the gross usurpation.

When the American people tamely submit to the inauguration of a man to the chief magistracy of the nation who was fairly beaten by the popular vote—who was legally beaten by the electoral vote—and can only be inaugurated by a violation of the constitution, laws, and all the usages and precedents, for a century back then is our republican government become a mockery and a farce, and the people deserve to be slaves for quietly submitting to be shackled.

Judge B. P. Berryman celebrated New Years day, by getting married. We were present and witnessed the ceremony and sampled the cakes and good things in that line. The bride looked beautiful but our conscience is not hardened enough to let us say that much for the groom, but we will say that he looked happy. Our best wishes attend them. May their wedded lives prove all that their brightest hopes have anticipated.

Letter From Spring Lick.
SPRING LICK, Jan. 9, 77.
Editor Herald:

Having just returned from Greenville and thinking perchance a few items in reference thereto might be of interest to some of the many readers of your new paper, I will proceed to give them in as brief and as concise manner as possible.

Mr. H. Kuykendall, who was indicted at the October term, 1876, of the Ohio Criminal Court, for complicity in the murder of H. C. Autry, at Rosine, last summer, was arrested near Rockport, Indiana, last week, by Mr. Sam. Thomas, of Hawesville, and brought here and placed in jail. A reward of $200 had been offered, and we understand that Mr. Thomas cashed his claim for the reward for $160.

Beaver Dam Items. BEAVER DAM, Jan. 8, 1877.
Correspondence Herald:

As Christmas is over, and I have gotten through "drinking egg-nog," I will try and resume my duties.

I thought you and I belonged to the same lodge, Brother Barrett, and am sorry you imbibed too freely of the egg mixture, and imagined everyone else had committed the same sin. To tell the truth, I have but one old hen, and she has been setting for two long months, and no eggs could be bought in the town, or country, during Christmas week.

Kris Kringle was on hand, and made joyous the hearts of the youthful, while the older ones sat in their retrospective chairs.

Judge Ed Cooper was a few nights since, robbed of twelve dollars and ninety cents. A thief entered his house between one and two o'clock in the morning and took his pocketbook from his pants' pocket—the pants having been left on a chair, he having failed to fasten the hall door, on returning. The denominations were a ten, and two dollar bill, and the rest in small change. His wife saw the man leaving the room, but supposed him to be a gentleman who slept in the adjoining room. The Judge, when missing his money at daylight felt—different. He cannot swear to the bills; and there is no clue to the bold perpetrator.

A child of Mr. H. B. Taylor, aged five years, departed this life December 29th, and was interred the following day.

Mr. R. H. Stevens had a very handsome Christmas gift presented him—a fourteen pound boy. He has named him Alexander Peter Cooper Stevens. If that boy does not cause his father to lose his lungs by calling him, it will be a wonder to me.

As new years day has passed, I wonder if all who have perused the columns of the HERALD to the past twelve months will live to read it another. Many changes have taken place since this hour one year ago. Some of our nearest and dearest friends have passed away—we trust to a more happy home than this earthly one. Before another year rolls her mantle round, we, too, may be with them. The year past was in every respect, an eventful one—the world seemed to run wild over politics, and His words were forgotten. More enemies and fewer friends were made than many past; neighbors and friends seemed to become more embittered towards each other, than was ever known before. Many who once stood high in the esteem of all, have fallen too low, it may be, to ever be reclaimed. Parents it seems, have forgotten to instill principles of virtue into youthful minds, as they once did, or, if so, it has less weight. People are forgetting to pluck the mote from their own eye, which is often found therein, and are devoting more time in speaking of those who only once in a while forsake the path of rectitude.

I am very strong in the belief, Brother Barrett, that there are people in this world—and they are found in all parts of it—who do not understand their professions. There are some who commit their sinful acts behind a screen and profess pure holiness before the world. You find these, who, when they see another, departing from the proper course, whisper the same in all confidence, to their neighbor, who doeth likewise, and after the fact is well circulated, you may notice all pass along and look at that wayward child, out of the corner of one eye. I have often wondered, if it would not be better, if those who profess to have favor with their God, were to take these prodigies by the hand and lead them back, if they would not have more stars added to their crown? Yes, they are called Christians, but, is it not of a sacrificial character? And, I have often thought, that when these Christians(?) leave this mundane sphere, will they not find less favor with their God, than those who made not half the pretension, and did what they did, more openly and afterwards felt sorry on account of disobedience to the Divine will. Let's all shake hands around, forgive each other for the many shortcomings, read our bibles more, and perchance, our lives will be happier here, and a more star-decked crown will welcome us hereafter.

With the wish that the HERALD may increase ten-fold this year, and that it be perpetual, I am truly thine HENRY.

Letter From Spring Lick.
SPRING LICK, Jan. 9, 77.
Editor Herald:

Having just returned from Greenville and thinking perchance a few items in reference thereto might be of interest to some of the many readers of your new paper, I will proceed to give them in as brief and as concise manner as possible.

Mr. Abe Bosquit, of the Corralvo neighborhood, was arrested on last Saturday, at Beaver Dam, charged with aiding David Hall, who was under arrest for horse stealing, to escape from the guards. He was tried before his honor, Judge F. P. Morgan, on Monday last, and was acquitted. The proof was such as not to convict him, and we think the verdict of the Court was correct. Bosquit was under the influence of liquor, and did act imprudently, no doubt, but there was no circumstance or proof against him sufficient to warrant a court to bind him over. He was defended by Mr. E. C. Hubbard.

The citizens with one accord admit the advantage and importance of a railroad to any country, but still they say they cannot afford to pay the tax for such conveniences. Whether they are right in repudiating the railroad tax, voted upon themselves by a majority of the qualified voters of the county is a question which shall not attempt to argue. But there is one thing peculiar to the country and which appears remarkably strange to many and that is, there is not a single justice of the peace in the county, neither has there been for over two years. All matters and actions over which magistrates had jurisdiction now come before the County Judge and Police Judges in the various little towns in the county. These officers of the law were dispensed with, as I was informed, in order to prevent the serving of processes on them for railroad tax.

But as I am digressing from the subject, will return to Greenville, and endeavor to describe how the holidays were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations were distributed in town and to acquaintances in adjacent counties. At half-past seven the parlors were thrown open, and the guests were spent by the citizens. The weather from Christmas to New Year's day, was intensely cold, without any intermission, but notwithstanding this, the young ladies and gentlemen were determined to have parties and they did. But the grandest one, the writer ever witnessed in the town of Greenville, was given by Mr. F. B. Hancock, on Thursday evening, 28th. Over five hundred invitations

WEDNESDAY JAN. 10, 1877.

Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.

Charges for yearly advertisements will be collected quarterly.

All advertisements inserted without specified time will be charged for until ordered out.

Notice under head of "Preferred Letters" Ten Cents per line.

Announcements of Marriages or Deaths, not exceeding five lines, and notices of Preaching published gratis.

Obituary Notices, Resolutions of Respect, and other similar notices, Five Cents per line.

Job work of every description done with business and dispatch at city prices. We have a full line of types, and solicit the patronage of the business community.

General Local News

"Buck" Morton has been having a lot of fun—sleighing.

Dances are still in order. Boys stir around and lets have another.

Ice on Green river last week was reported to be six or eight inches thick.

The most popular amusement since the falling of the heavy snow has been sleigh-riding.

The young people of this city have enjoyed several hops since the beginning of the holidays.

Last week was court of claims and a good many people were brought to town in consequence thereof.

The most up-hill business with us just now is to substitute the 7 for the 6 in writing the year.

Business in the larger cities is not entirely at a standstill, judging from the drummers that visit us.

Boys, in writing to the fair sex—We know you do—be sure and put it "77," else they may think you are not up with the times.

Though it be immediately after the holidays, our grocery men do not complain of dull times.

Now is the proper time for our patrons to renew their subscriptions, and we hope all will do so immediately.

When you have any local news that would be of interest to our readers, please come to the office and inform us of the fact.

When you visit Owensboro, if you need anything in the clothing line, go direct to E. Schwab & Bro's. They keep a general assortment.

At the present time Hartford is without a tobacco buyer, but it is rumored that Z. Wayne Griffin and W. H. Williams will begin purchasing the weed when we have a season.

The night was very cold, and that may be an excuse for their walking so closely, but we don't know what to think of that peculiar smacking we heard sounded like kissing, but we reckon it wasn't.

It is our desire to collect for the Herald all the local news of the county, and our friends in the country will confer a favor upon us, by sending us any items of interest that may occur in their neighborhood.

The Western Citizen, published at Paris, Ky., by Messrs. McChesney & Johnson, is, perhaps, the oldest periodical now being published in the State. With this week's issue, they launch upon the sixty-ninth volume. Continued success to you gen'lemen.

Quite a number of the Good Temples of this place met at Mrs. Loot Collins' last Friday night to cast characters and select suitable plays for their order. The ball was put moving, and now our citizens may hold themselves in readiness for something good when the plays are presented. The time for playing them has not yet been set, but then rest easy, we'll let you know.

The South Carrollton Student is the last new exchange to find its way to this office. It is a beautiful little sheet, gotten up by the pupils of the South Carrollton Male and Female Institute. Prof. Alexander is the man on the staff, but a goodly portion of the paper is occupied by productions from the pupils. It is quite an able little institution, and one which the citizens of Carrollton should liberally patronize and sustain. The Student is published in the Owensboro Examiner of course, by Mr. L. Lumpkin.

Attention Subscribers.

A good many of our subscribers began late in the year of 1876 and several of them subscribed for three months and some only until 1st of January, 1877. To all such, we say, if you will now pay us a sum sufficient when added to your other subscription to make $1.50, we will send you the paper one year from the time you began taking it.

Home Again.

OLD YEAR'S FAREWELL.
BY HORATIO.

Old Time, a monster none can stay,
With ruthless hand hath swept away,
The Old Year with its joy and woe,
Into the past where all must go.
How many hearts one year ago
A sigh or pain they did not know.
Have wept and bled with direst pain
Are doomed long to weep again?

The Old Year's gone, mid pall of gloom
With snowflakes piled on many a tomb,
And could the Old Year carry by
The grief, the sorrow, and the sigh
That we must know in future years,
We'd say "farewell" with but few tears,
And let the grief we all now know
From every one forever go.

The past has gone from us forever,
Time alone the ties can sever
That bind us to the ones we love—
We hope to meet in realms above.

Another year to us is given,
The end of which is known to Heaven.
Farewell Old Year, we say "good bye,"
With many a smile and many a sigh,
And into Future's unknown sphere
We soon shall smile or shed a tear.

ish prattle; but disease marked him for its victim; and soon brought him down into death's cold embrace, and to-day he sleeps quietly in Liberty cemetery. The wintry winds will sing a sad requiem over his little grave, and the early spring flowers will bloom about his resting place, as if to perpetuate his memory on earth, while his spirit is basking in the Paradise of God. The bereaved parents will sigh for the "loved and the lost," as they view the "vacant chair" in the broken group, but will "mourn not as those who have no hope," but by an eye of faith they will view their little Anna as another treasure in Heaven, a "light in the window" to guide them, in their march through the darkness and gloom and perplexities of earth, to "mansions in the skies."

"Beyond the light of time,
Beyond the reign of death,
There surely is some blessed clime
Where life is not a breath."

YARD WIDE CHINTZ CALICO AT 8 CENTS AT
L. ROSENBERG & BROS.

A FRESH LOT OF CANDIES AT
E. T. WILLIAMS.

MISS MARY ROWE, of this place, returned home from Greenville, Kentucky, last Friday. The hearts of several young gentlemen are saddened by her departure from that place.

DR. JAMES ASHLOCK, of Long Grove, Hardin county, Kentucky, arrived in town Saturday evening, and spent Sunday with his numerous friends here.

HARRY BRIDGES, Carson, Daniel & Co.'s, right bower, has been in town for a few days past. Our grocers know Harry will do to depend upon, and they all save their orders for him.

MR. W. H. GRIFFIN and lady, (neé Miss Inez Miller), returned from a visit to relatives in Elizabethtown, Kentucky, a few days ago. While there Henry purchased the necessary articles for housekeeping, and is now our nearest neighbor.

MRS. L. J. LYON, after an absence for several weeks, visiting kindred at Cave City, Kentucky, returned Saturday, and is now the landlady of the Crow House.

OUR YOUNG FRIEND L. P. FOREMAN is holding the reins over a squad of young pupils in the Duke neighborhood, a few miles above town. Jack can put it in their cranium if anybody can.

MR. JOHN DOHERTY, of Rockport, Kentucky, one of the Herald's best friends, was with us one day last week.

MR. W. H. MURRELL, the enterprising druggist of Beaver Dam, was in town Sunday, "prospecting" around.

REV. BOB BENNETT, of the No Creek neighborhood, was married in this place Thursday evening last, to Mrs. JOHNSON, of Pleasant Ridge.

COL. O. P. JOHNSON, the U. S. Collector of this district, spent a few days with his family here last week, but returned to Owensboro Sunday, where the office is now located.

DR. W. C. STEVENS, Munroe Block, Syracuse, N. Y.

TRY IT—and You will Always use Wood's Improved.

WOOD'S IMPROVED HAIR RESTORATIVE is unlike any other, and has no equal. The Improved has new vegetable tonic properties; restores grey hair to glossy, natural color; restores dresses, gives vigor to the hair; restores hair to prematurely bald heads; removes dandruff, humors, scaly eruptions; removes irritation, itching and scaly dryness. No article produces such wonderful effects. Try it, call for Wood's improved Hair Restorative, and don't part with any other article.

Sold by all druggists in this place and dealers everywhere. Trade supplied at manufacturer's price by C. A. Cook

[Lincoln, Illinois, Times.]

EVEN WHERE A PHYSICIAN IS DEPENDENT ON A CASE OF SICKNESS, IT IS ALWAYS WELL TO HAVE AT HAND A SIMPLE AND EFFECTIVE REMEDY ADAPTED TO THE WIDEST RANGE OF DISEASES. ESPECIALLY IS THIS TRUE OF PAINS, ACHES AND SUDDEN ATTACKS OF ACUTE DISEASE. FOR THESE AND FOR A SURPRISING NUMBER OF MALIGNANT AND FATAL COMPLAINTS DR. RADCLIFFE'S SEVEN SEALS OR GOLDEN WONDER NEVER FAILS WHEN USED IN TIME. WITH THIS GREAT HOUSEHOLD REMEDY.

WE HAVE A GREAT DEAL DUE US BY THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY, IN NOTES, ACCOUNTS, TAXES, ATTORNEY'S FEES, FEES, BILLS, SUBSCRIPTIONS, ADVERTISING, JOB-WORK, &c., FOR THE HERALD. WE NEED THE MONEY, WE HAVE JUSTLY EARNED IT, AND WANT YOU TO PAY US. THE OLD TAPER EXPRESSED OUR CONDITION WHEN HE SAID:

"WE ARE OUT OF MONEY AND OUT OF CLOTHES, OUT AT THE FEET AND OUT AT THE TOES, OUT OF CREDIT AND IN DEBT."

OUR CLOTH IS OUT AT THE ELBOW, OUR PANTS ARE OUT IN THE REAR, AND WE MANAGE TO BE OUT WHEN THE COLLECTING OFFICER OR ONE OF OUR HUNGRY CREDITORS COME AROUND. WE ARE TIRED OF GOING AROUND THE BACKWAY TO DINNER, HIDING UNDER THE BED AND HAVING OUR WIFE TELL US WE ARE NOT AT HOME, OR CRAWLING INTO THE BIG GOODS BOX IN WHICH WE DEPOSIT OLD PAPERS, AND HEARING THE "DEVIL" TELL THAT WE LEFT HOME YESTERDAY AND WILL NOT BE BACK FOR SEVERAL DAYS, ALL TO AVOID MEETING OUR CREDITORS, AND IF YOU HAVE A SOUL AS BIG AS A SEED TICK OR A CONSCIENCE NO HARDER THAN ADAMANTINE, YOU WILL SYMPATHIZE WITH US AND AT LEAST, PAY US A PART OF WHAT YOU OWE. IF YOU DO NOT, MR. PHILLIPS, THE NEW SHERIFF, WILL BE SURE TO VISIT YOU SOON AND ARREST YOU UP A LITTLE. LET EACH ONE THAT IS JUDGED TO US, TAKE THIS TO HIMSELF, FOR WE MEAN IT FOR HIM, PERSONALLY.

LARKIN NALL.

SUBSCRIBERS OF 1876 READ THIS.

IN THE EARLY PART OF 1876, WE PROMISED $50.00 IN CASH AS PREMIUMS TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE HARTFORD HERALD, AS FOLLOWS:

FOR THE BEST HALF BUSHL BREAD CORN IN THE CAR.....$10

FOR THE BEST HALF BUSHL STOCK CORN IN THE CAR.....$10

FOR THE BEST SAMPLE OF TEN POUNDS OF SHIPPING LEAF TOBACCO.....$10

FOR THE BEST SAMPLE OF TEN POUNDS OF MANUFACTURING LEAF TOBACCO.....$10

FOR THE BEST SAMPLE OF TEN POUNDS OF CUTTING LEAF TOBACCO.....$10

THE SAMPLES IN EACH CASE MUST BE OF THE CROP OF 1876, AND PROVIDED BY THE PERSON COMPETING OR HIS PREMISES. THESE PREMIUMS ARE OFFERED TO CITIZENS OF KENTUCKY WHO WERE BONAFIDE PAID UP YEARLY SUBSCRIBERS TO THE HARTFORD HERALD, OR BECOME SUCH ON OR BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF JUNE, 1876.

ON ACCOUNT OF THE LONG DRY WEATHER, THE TIME HAS BEEN DELAYED MUCH LONGER THAN WE HAD EXPECTED. WE HAVE SET THE TIME FOR SATURDAY 31ST OF FEBRUARY, 1877. THREE OF THE BEST JUDGES OF TOBACCO OF OUR ACQUAINTANCE AND TWO MILLERS OF GREAT EXPERIENCE, HAVE BEEN SELECTED AS JUDGES SO THAT THE PREMIUMS MAY BE FAIRLY AWARDED. IN OUR NEXT ISSUE WE WILL GIVE FULL PARTICULARS OF WHERE THE SAMPLES ARE TO BE LEFT, ETC. LET EVERY SUBSCRIBER COMPETE, AS IT COSTS HIM NOTHING, AND EACH HAS A CHANCE OF WINNING.

In Memoriam.

ANIA CROW, son of Harber B. Taylor and Octavia Taylor, departed this life December 29th, 1876, after a brief illness of pneumonia; aged four years, one month and seventeen days.

A few days ago little Ania was well, lively, and cheerful, scattering sunshine and happiness amid the family circle, by his innocent glee and childish prattle; but disease marked him for its victim; and soon brought him down into death's cold embrace, and to-day he sleeps quietly in Liberty cemetery. The wintry winds will sing a sad requiem over his little grave, and the early spring flowers will bloom about his resting place, as if to perpetuate his memory on earth, while his spirit is basking in the Paradise of God. The bereaved parents will sigh for the "loved and the lost," as they view the "vacant chair" in the broken group, but will "mourn not as those who have no hope," but by an eye of faith they will view their little Anna as another treasure in Heaven, a "light in the window" to guide them, in their march through the darkness and gloom and perplexities of earth, to "mansions in the skies."

THANKS to Miss Alice Leach, of Cave City, for favors.

HARFORD POST-OFFICE SUBSCRIBERS.

WE HAVE BEEN DELIVERING A PART OF THE MAIL TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS AT THE OFFICE HERE, BUT IT WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR US TO DO SO LONGER, AS WE HAVE MOVED THE COMPOSITOR'S IN THE REAR OF THE SAME BUILDING, AND WILL MAKE IT TOO INCONVENIENT. IT WILL HEREAFTER BE DELIVERED AT THE POST-OFFICE.

PREFERRED LOCALS.

A FRESH LOT OF SUGAR AND COFFEE AT

E. T. WILLIAMS.

PATRONAGE SOLICITED AND SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. PRICES REASONABLE. ORDERS FROM A DISTANCE PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

ALL ORDERS WILL RECEIVE OUR PROMPT ATTENTION.

n55 ly

YARD WIDE CHINTZ CALICO AT 8 CENTS AT

L. ROSENBERG & BROS.

A FRESH LOT OF CANDIES AT

E. T. WILLIAMS.

THE "LEADER" CIGAR CAN ALWAYS BE FOUND AT J. W. FORD'S. THIS CIGAR IS WARRANTED TO BE OF PURE HAVANA FILLING.

TERMS FOR PERSONAL.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.....$10.00

JUNIOR.....$15.00

HIGHER ENGLISH.....$20.00

ADMISSIONS OF FOREIGN STUDENTS.....$25.00

INCIDENTAL FEES, TO BE PAID BEFORE ARRIVAL.....$1.00

ONE-HALF OF THE TUITION WILL BE DUE AT THE MIDDLE OF THE SESSION, AND THE OTHER HALF AT THE CLOSE. NO DEDUCTION FOR ABSENCE, EXCEPT IN CASE OF PROTRACTED ILLNESS. STUDENTS WILL BE ALLOWED TO AMEND THEIR ACCOMMODATIONS FROM TIME TO TIME. SPECIAL ATTENTION PAID TO FIT IN BOYS FOR COLLEGE. BOARD CAN BE OBTAINED AT $2.50 TO $3.00 PER WEEK.

COURT OF SESSION.

THE next session of this school will commence on the first Monday of September, 1877, and continue Twenty Weeks, under the charge of Malcolm Selby A. B., assisted by Miss Sallie Peyton.

TERMS FOR PERSONAL.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.....$10.00

JUNIOR.....$15.00

HIGHER ENGLISH.....$20.00

ADMISSIONS OF FOREIGN STUDENTS.....$25.00

INCIDENTAL FEES, TO BE PAID BEFORE ARRIVAL.....$1.00

ONE-HALF OF THE TUITION WILL BE DUE AT THE MIDDLE OF THE SESSION, AND THE OTHER HALF AT THE CLOSE. NO DEDUCTION FOR ABSENCE, EXCEPT IN CASE OF PROTRACTED ILLNESS. STUDENTS WILL BE ALLOWED TO AMEND THEIR ACCOMMODATIONS FROM TIME TO TIME. SPECIAL ATTENTION PAID TO FIT IN BOYS FOR COLLEGE. BOARD CAN BE OBTAINED AT $2.50 TO $3.00 PER WEEK.

COURT OF SESSION.

THE next session of this school will commence on the first Monday of September, 1877, and continue Twenty Weeks, under the charge of Malcolm Selby A. B., assisted by Miss Sallie Peyton.

TERMS FOR PERSONAL.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.....$10.00

JUNIOR.....$15.00

HIGHER ENGLISH.....$20.00

ADMISSIONS OF FOREIGN STUDENTS.....$25.00

INCIDENTAL FEES, TO BE PAID BEFORE ARRIVAL.....$1.00

ONE-HALF OF THE TUITION WILL BE DUE AT THE MIDDLE OF THE SESSION, AND THE OTHER HALF AT THE CLOSE. NO DEDUCTION FOR ABSENCE, EXCEPT IN CASE OF PROTRACTED ILLNESS. STUDENTS WILL BE ALLOWED TO AMEND THEIR ACCOMMODATIONS FROM TIME TO TIME. SPECIAL ATTENTION PAID TO FIT IN BOYS FOR COLLEGE. BOARD CAN BE OBTAINED AT $2.50 TO $3.00 PER WEEK.

THE HERALD.

Arrival and Departure of the Mails.

Eastern and Western Mails leave at 10 a. m., and arrive at 4 p. m. every day. Sulphur Springs, Fordville, Haynesville, and Pellyville leaves every Thursday at 6 p. m. and arrives Saturday at 3 p. m.

The Owenton mail, via Beda, Bedford, Pleasant Ridge and Masonville, leaves on Tuesday and Friday at 7 a. m., and arrives Monday and Thursday at 6 p. m.

The Centerpoint mail arrives at 10 a. m., and departs at 11 a. m. Wednesday. C. J. LAWTON, Postmaster.

Kind Words.

For the Herald.

Kind words fall upon the poor drooping heart like the gentle dew on the tender plant, refreshing its drooping tendrils and soothing its burning woes.

Oh, who can tell the power of kind words.

Long after they are uttered, they reverberate in the soul's inner chamber and sing low, sweet liquid strains that quell all the raging storms that may have previously existed.

When the heart is sad and like a broken harp, the sweetest chords of pleasure are to vibrate, one little word of tenderness gushing in upon the soul, will sweep the long neglected chords and awaken the most pleasant strains. And, Oh! when borne down with the trials and troubles of life, we are ready to sink, fainting by the way; how like the cheering rays of sunshine do kind words come; they dispel the clouds, dispel the gloom and drive sorrow far away, at least for a time. They are vases of bright flowers in life's great desert or jewels in the heart, never to be forgotten, but will cheer by their memory and scatter sunbeams along the pathway of life.

Advertising People.

Says the Boston Post: "People who advertise are smarter than those who don't; better looking, too, nine times in ten. This is natural, if not logical. Advertising is an indication of intelligence, and intelligence is one of the leading elements of good looks. At all events the world believes in those who advertise, and it places its dollar in their pockets. Such are live people; and in these live days nobody wants anything to do with any but your live men and women. Our advice to every—except in matrimony—is to advertise. It is sure to return largely, increase your reputation as a business man, make hosts of friends, and add to the number of shrewd and sensible people in the world, of which there has never been an overstock."

It was on Friday, the 3rd of August, 1492, that Columbus sailed from the harbor of Palos for the New World. It was on Friday, the 12th of October, 1492, that he first saw land, after sixty-five days of navigation.

It was on Friday, the 4th day of January, 1493, that he started on his return to Spain to announce to their Catholic Majesties the glorious result of their expedition, and on Friday, the 15th of March, 1493, that he disembarked in Andalusia. It was on Friday, the 13th of June, 1494; that he discovered the American Continent. On Friday March 5, 1494, Henry VII., of England, gave to John Cabot his dispatch for the voyage which resulted in the discovery of the Continent of North America.

On Friday, September 6, 1565, Mendez founded St. Augustine, the oldest town in the United States. On Friday, November 10, 1620, the Mayflower first disembarked a few emigrants on American soil at Provincetown, and on Friday, December 25, 1620, finally landed at Plymouth Rock. It was on Friday, February 22, 1732, that George Washington was born.

It was on Friday, June 16, 1775, that the battle of Bunker Hill was fought, and on Friday, October 7, 1777, that the surrender of Saratoga took place, which event decided France to give her aid to the Americans. The treason of Arnold was discovered on Friday. Yorktown surrendered on Friday, and on Friday, June 7, 1776, Richard Henry Lee read the Declaration of Independence to the Continental Congress.

It is strange that young men would sooner stroll about over the country after half a dozen hours than sit still and study books. Kill your hours, boys, burn your greasy deck, break your half-pint bottles, take your pants out of your boots, comb your hair straight, be virtuous if you want to be happy. Go to work, do something, turn a clog; he who gives the world a potato has not lived in vain. There are few roses scattered here and there, but you must get from among the thorns if you wish to find them. Don't depend upon what your ancestors did in the past that is gone. The eternal past is gone, you are to man your own boat, run your own machine.

"The man who cheats the printer Out of a single cent Will never reach the heavenly land Where 'e Elijah went."

Antidote for Poison.

If a person swallows any poison whatever, or has fallen into convulsions from having over loaded the stomach, an instantaneous and very efficient remedy is a heaping teaspoonful of common salt, and as much ground mustard, stirred rapidly in a teacup of water, warm or cold, and swallowing instantly. It is scarcely down before it begins to come up, bringing with it the remaining contents of the stomach; and, less there be any remnant of the poison, however small, let the white of an egg and sweet oil or butter, or lard, several spoonfuls, be swallowed immediately after vomiting; because these common articles nullify a larger number of virtuous poisons than any medicine in the shops.

NATIONAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER.
It offers real and substantial pay to agents, one of whom it wants in every neighborhood. Send for sample copy and circular showing the remarkable importance it offers to agents.

Subscribers to the weekly edition may secure a handsome edition of any one of over two hundred standard books, or a year's subscription to any one of the great magazines or illustrated papers, by adding a mere trifle to the price of the COURIER-JOURNAL. Send for the circular showing the brilliant offers made to subscribers.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION FOR THE COURIER-JOURNAL

Postage Paid by us at this Office.

Daily Courier-Journal, One Year.....$12.00

Sunday Courier-Journal, One Year.....2.00

WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL.

Single Copy, One Year.....$2.00

Five to Ten Copies, One Year.....1.70

Ten to Twenty Copies, One Year.....1.60

Twenty to Fifty Copies, One Year.....1.50

LOUIS TRIPP.

GREAT CENTRAL

MUSIC HOUSE,

Nos. 170 & 172 Fourth Avenue

LOUISVILLE, KY.

WEBER

No Plus Ultra

PIANOS,

MANNI

PIANO ORGANS.

New Music

Received daily, and from 2 to 56 copies of every piece published since 1813, now in stock.

ORDERS promptly filled no matter how small the amount.

Catalogue furnished free.
Address: LOUIS TRIPP,
2nd flr

Louisville, Ky.

W. N. HALDEMAN,

President Courier Journal Company,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

MILLWOOD HOTEL,

MILLWOOD KY.

H. K. WELLS, Prop.

... O ...

The day train from Paducah to Louisville stops for dinner at this place. Passengers will find a good dinner for the small sum of $5.00. The trains stop long enough to give passengers sufficient time to eat.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

TO THE COURIER-JOURNAL

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Publications

POSTAGE PAID.

Frank Leslie's Ill. Newspaper, Weekly, $4.00

Frank Leslie's Chimney Corner, " 4.00

Frank Leslie's Illustrate Zeitung, " 4.00

The Day's Doing, " 4.00

Frank Leslie's Lady's Journal, " 2.50

The Young American, " 2.50

Frank Leslie's Boys and Girls' Weekly, " 2.50

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, " 2.00

Frank Leslie's Lady's Magazine, " 3.50

Frank Leslie's Boys of America, " 1.50

Frank Leslie's Pleasant House, " 1.50

Frank Leslie's Budget of Fun, " 1.50

The Big Joke Book, " 1.50

Frank Leslie's Family Herald, " 1.00

Frank Leslie's New York Journal, " 1.00

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Almanac, " 50

Frank Leslie's Comic Almanac, " 15

Every yearly subscriber is entitled to a beautiful Premium Chromo with each publication. The originals were designed and painted expressly for our use, and the Chromos are printed in oil, exactly reproducing, in every detail the original masterpieces of art.

AGENTS WANTED.

Address: AGENCY DEPARTMENT, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 557 Pearl Street, New York.

no. 22-edw6m.

GO TO L. T. BARNARD'S

BEAVER DAM, KY.

For the best

Family and Fancy GROCERIES,

HARDWARE,

Agricultural Implements, Etc.,

CIGARS, TOBACCOES,

PURE APPLE BRANDY, BULLENGE

AND MONARCH WHISKIES, at the LOWEST CASE PRICES.

Sullenger Whisky 2 years old at 70 cents a quart.

no. 15.

SAM LARKINS

Fashionable Barber

HARTFORD KY.

SHAVING, Hair Cutting and Hair

Dressing done in the best style. I am at the same OLD STAND, but have repaired it and made it almost a new shop.

Please give me a call.

no. 39.

New Steam SawMill.

E. A. BUNCH, Prop.

Millwood, Ky.

Can furnish all kinds of BUILDING LUM-

BERS, SHORES, NAILS, etc.

Robert Steam Saw Mill, Bushy

Switch, one mile east of Millwood, Grayson

County, Ky.

no. 15-IV

"END 25c. to G. P. ROWELL & CO., N. Y.

For Pamphlet of 100 pages, containing lists of 3000 newspapers, and estimates showing cost of advertising.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE

Louisville, Paducah & Southwestern.

The down train for Paducah leaves Louisville daily except Sunday at 8:30 a. m. and arrives at

Cecilian Junction at 11:00 a. m.

Grayson Springs at 12:02 p. m.

Leitchfield at 12:15 "

Millwood at (Dinner) 12:35 "

Bardstown at 2:20 "

Rockport at 2:44 "

Owensboro Junction at 3:10 "

Greenville at 3:30 "

Nortonville Junction at 4:20 "

Paducah at 7:35 "

The up train for Louisville leaves Paducah daily except Sunday at 8:45 a. m. and arrives at Nortonville Junction at 9:50 a. m.

Greenville at 10:42 "

Owensboro Junction at 11:02 "

Rockport at 11:30 a. m.

Bardstown at 11:45 "

Leitchfield at 1:45 p. m.

Grayson Springs at 1:56 "

Big Clifft at (Dinner) 2:15 "

Cecilian Junction at 3:10 "

Harrold at 3:35 "

Harrold is connected with the railroad at Big Dan, the stage line runs to the

These trains connect with Elizabethtown at Cecilian, at Owensboro, Henderson and Nashville at Nortonville.

D. F. WHITCOMBE, Superintendent.

Evansville, Owensboro & Nashville.

The Mail and Accommodation trains are run by the following time-table:

MAIL

Arrives.